Public Hearing on DASH Service Changes

CCA has been working to expand the routes and hours of the L.A. Department of Transportation's (LADOT) DASH bus service. DASH provides frequent, inexpensive bus service in Downtown and 27 other neighborhoods across the City.

As Downtown has expanded from a jobs hub into a vibrant 24/7 destination with a large residential population, DASH has not kept pace. CCA has advocated for nighttime service and new or extended routes in rapidly growing neighborhoods like the Arts District and South Park.

On Monday, August 22nd, LADOT will be holding a public hearing in Downtown about its potential changes and additions to DASH service. Once hearings around the city end, LADOT will give a list of recommended changes to the City Council for approval. This is the Downtown community's chance to be heard about how DASH can better serve the area.

CCA IN THE NEWS

"It was a very different era. The whole concept of living downtown was foreign — certainly to most Angelenos." Since then there's been "this explosion of restaurants, explosion of clubs and explosion of residents," said, Carol Schatz. Los Angeles Times, August 3, 2016. "The risk was low; the reward was high. The time you had to be there was flexible. This is comfortable living — or was anyway," said Peklar Pilavjian, owner of St. Vincent Jewelry Center. Los Angeles Times, July 29, 2016. "The (Grand Central) Market is a natural match, and I'm sure more people being out and about searching for illusive online characters has meant more business at our venue."
